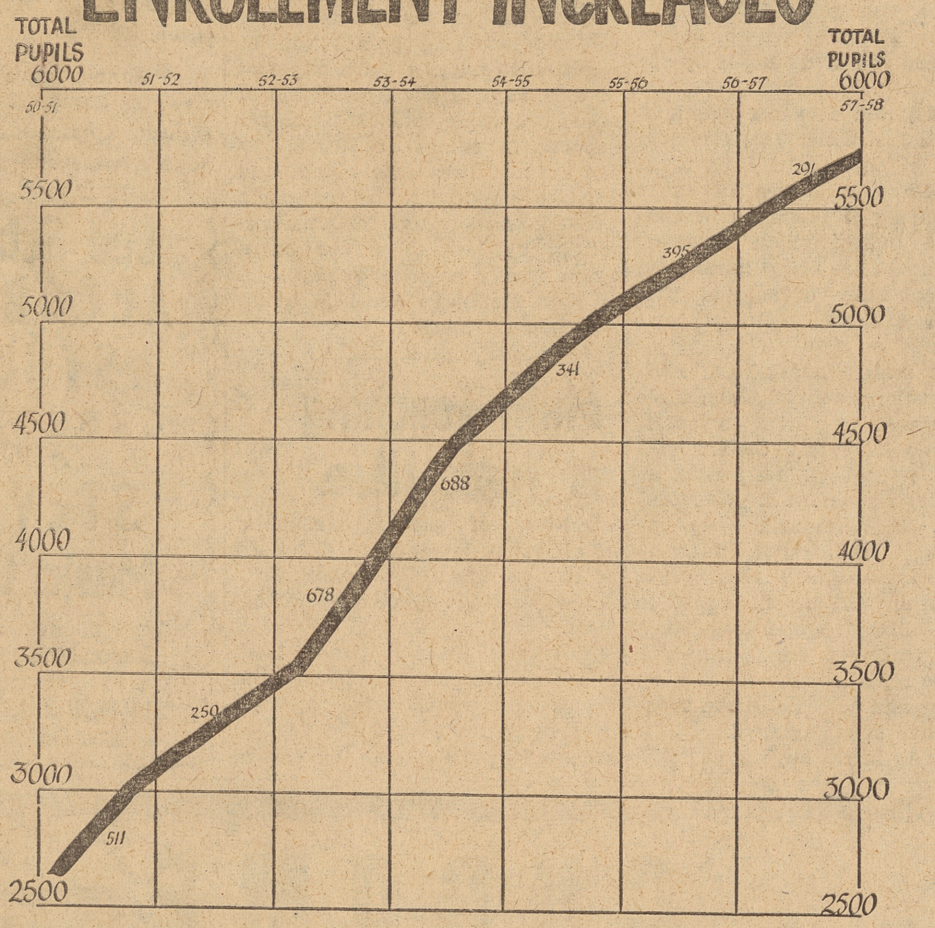
CAMPBELL UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT

ENROLLMENT INCREASES



This chart shows enrollment growth of the Campbell Elementary School District from 1950 to date and what is expected by 1958. There are 5,100 pupils in the district today, but the chart indicates that by 1958 there will be 6000 pupils. Strange thing about this chart, is its accuracy in that it was drawn in 1952 to show "projected" enrollments for the years to come and it has hit the mark with exceptional accuracy.

$1,800,000 SCHOOL AID VOTE HERE ON THURSDAY

To meet school house needs for 1956, 1957 and 1958, voters of the Campbell Union Elementary School District will go to the polls next Thursday to authorize trustees to accept up to $1,800,000 in State Funds for building and expansion purposes to cope with increasing enrollments. The authorization would not increase district taxes since it is already bonded to capacity, according to William Henley, district superintendent. State law puts a ceiling on the tax rate for redeeming bonds and this limit was reached several years ago.

Remaining bonds available by the district for sale must await a rise in assessments within the district. Proceeds will go to building eight new classrooms, a shop and home economics room onto the new Monroe School which opened just last September. Enough will be on hand to probably pay for the new Sherman Oaks school site now being acquired.

Right there is the "breaking point" for money available to the district. State aid will be essential for (1) a new school on Fruitdale Avenue, (2) construction of eight portable classrooms to meet the most critical classroom needs of Cypress, Hamilton, and Dover Schools, (3), purchase of three new school sites for which need can clearly be seen now, and, (4), ultimate building of thise schools. An estimated total cost for these projects comes to $1,590,000. Additions to Quito, Cypress, San Tomas and Moorpark Schools could add another $500,000 to this amount.

Each district school except Campbell Campbell Elementary to be a polling place next Thursday.

GOOD BUSINESS FORECAST IN 1956

The anticipated upswing in California during 1955 has developed into boom proportions far beyond the expectations of the most optimistic forecasters.

According to the Research Department of the California State Chamber of Commerce, new peak records were established for home building, sales of automobiles, and trade in other consumer goods. In employment, incomes, construction, and other measures of economic activity, California showed a greater percentage of increase over 1954, than was shown for the nation as a whole.

Composite indexes of business activity in California showed a steadily rising curve from May 1954, through August of 1955, leveling off on a high plateau during the Fall months of 1955.

Gross national product—the dollar measure of the nation's total output in goods and services—rose to $388 billion or 7.6 percent. The Chamber noted that none of the economic forecasters expect the year 1956 to show any equally large percent rise over 1955. The median of most published forecasts centers between $400 and $405 billion for a 3 to 4.5 percent increase during 1956.

California's population by mid-1955 had increased to 13,035,000, a gain of 3.5 percent over the 12 months pervious, according to estimates by the State Department of Finance. Another 450,000 residents will be added to the State's population by July 1956.

The Chamber's Research Department noted that total civilian employment has more than kept pace with population growth.

"The 1955 average rose 3.6 percent to 5,140,000. Non-farm employment of wage and salary workers rose 4 percent. Personal incomes, too, continued to rise throughout 1955 with wages and salaries climbing to $20,155,000,000 and total income to $29,400,000,000, 8.7 percent higher than the previous year.

"The outlook for 1956 is for another 4 percent rise in personal incomes in California to about $30,500,000,000," the Chamber stated.

FIRE AT ALUM ROCK

The Co-op Market at Alum Rock and Jackson avenues was destroyed by fire Tuesday with an estimated —100,000 loss in merchandise and the building.

Cause of the blaze, which started in a storage area in the rear of the store, is undetermined.

Four pieces of county central fire department equipment controlled the fire in 90 minutes. L. C. McDonald, the market proprietor, said the loss is covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Rubio P. Woehl, owner of the property, who resided in the rear of the building.

BURGLARS ENTER CHEERIO MARKET TAKE $300 LOOT

Thieves who broke into the Cheerio Market on North Winchester Road early Friday morning were routed and given chase by a produce delivery man, but they escaped with approximately $300 worth of merchandise which had already been stowed into their car.

Anton Poley, owner of the market, stated the thieves broke into the store through a twelve by twelve inch ventilator in the attic in the rear of the store between 2:00 and 3:00 a. m. Friday and loaded the car with quantities of groceries and meat, also several cases of beer and a quantity of cosmetics. They had more stacks of merchandise in the rear of the store which they were preparing to get away with, when a delivery man discovered them about 3:15 and gave chase. He was unable to catch them so reported the robbery to the Campbell police who scoured the neighborhood, but were unable to find any trace of the car, reported to be a green Chevrolet. The delivery man who discovered the robbery, reported thieves to be a man and wife with four or five children.

Poley stated it was the second robbery in his store during the year. Thieves entered the market last March and stole approximately $300 in merchandise and groceries at that time, also.

FOUR CARS IN CRASH INJURES LOS GATOS MAN

An accident involving four cars last Sunday morning on Winchester Road, sent one man to O'Connor Hospital with severe head and back injuries.

Ned Harding, 24, of 91 Bentley Avenue, Los Gatos, apparently had a blowout, causing him to first collide headon with a car driven by Gordon Thomson of 24351 Santa Cruz Highway, Los Gatos, after which he bounced off and hit a car driven by Mrs. Hugh Herman of 1344 Lafayette Street, Santa Clara, throwing her husband from the car. Herman was taken to O'Connor Hospital where it was reported he had sustained severe back and head injuries. The third car Harding collided wth was driven by Walter David Pierce of 80 Fairview Plaza, Los Gatos. All cars were extensively damaged. The car driven by Sparks was completely demolished. Harding received slight injuries which were treated by his family physician. No other injuries were reported as a result of the accident.

Sherman Oaks Is Name New School

The new school to be built on Fruitdale avenue in the Campbell Elementary School District is to be identified as the Sherman Oaks School, according to action of the district board. To be located near Sherman Oaks drive it will house 420 students in eight classrooms and a multi-purpose room.

It is scheduled for completion in December.

Council Cool On Plan To Set Up General Assessment District

The City Council took no immediate action on the recommendation from the Planning Commission that a general improvement assessment district be formed for city-wide improvement and standardization of its storm sewers, curbs, sidewalks and gutters. Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, said the commission is on the firing line as new subdivision plans are presented, but Mayor Richard Morton expressed doubt that any such district could be set up because of its extensive costs. Council agreed to give the proposal serious consideration at budget time, especially the $3000 item for engineering survey.

Mayor Morton also doubted if the voters would approve a bond issue, as the estimated cost would be $520,000.

Council heard an appeal from Ivan Kucich that they act on his application to rezone property on the west side of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, a quarter of a mile north of Campbell Avenue so he can build four unit apartment houses and a 24-unit apartment house. Planning Commission twice denied his request. Site is zoned now for light industrial Council set January 30 for hearing an application to rezone to R-2-S.

Council approved an amending ordinance that calls for at least three parking spaces being provided for every 250 square feet of gross floor area exclusive of floor area used for car parking and limiting open parking space on any commercial lot to 75 percent of gross area.

A letter from Laurance Hill, High School superintendent that parking requirements by the school on both West Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road be changed to parallel, was referred to the traffic engineer. Hill contended in his letter that diagonal parking is dangerous.

A letter from the San Jose City Council accepting an invitation for the two councils to meet and discuss annexation policies, was read and January 24 fixed as the tentative date. An ordinance to annex the seven-acre tract at Budd and Campbell Avenue was introduced.

Joseph Bonacina, city attorney said he was working on an amending ordinance for traffic, and on the building code ordinance.

N. D'Angelo, acting city engineer, said Mark Thomas was in San Francisco conferring with federal and state officials on flood damage in which either full temporary relief may be given or a 50 percent allocation made to restore damaged property to original status. He said a team of Bureau of Public Works inspectors surveyed flood damage here Monday.

Fire Chief Jack Scott reported the per capita fire loss for 1955 would be very low. He said some thought should be given to providing emergency equipment to cope with any new disaster.

Mayor Morton lauded cooperation of people faced with flood disaster and cited numerous instances of self-sacrifice.

Police Chief Robert Locke invited the Council to a meet of Auxiliary Police at the Rosemary School on January 13 when Todd Hunter of Motis Operenda in Criminal Investigation Department at Sacramento will be the main speaker.

FIRST BUILDING PERMIT ISSUED

First building permit for 1956 was issued to Y Matsuo of 1049 West Campbell Avenue for a frame warehouse to cost $2,160 for farm use. Union Oil Company was issued a pemit to erect a sign costin g$400 at their station on the northeast corner of Latimer and Winchester Road.

W. L. Morser, building inspecter, reported to the city council Tuesday that in December permits were issued for 15 homes costing a total of $133,607. There were 30 electrical and plumbing permits issued. Total fees collected in December amounted to $617,35, he stated.

PLANNERS STUDY HAMILTON LINES AT MEET TONIGHT

On the agenda of the Planning Commission meeting tonight will be a hearing on official plan lines map of Hamilton Avenue which would project westerly from Winchester Road to San Tomas Aquina Road where it would angle 90 degrees and intersect with Campbell Avenue. The hearing tonight is on the first unit extending to Latimer Park and is concerned with set back lines for future development.

The commission is to be re-organized tonight in the annual election. Hollis Logue is president and Homer Hyde, secretary of the present commission.

A letter from Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission regarding a special meeting next Monday at San Jose will be read, and final plans of the Hamilton Square subdivision reviewed.

Flood Pictures Are Sought Here

LeRoy Black, superintendent of streets for the City of Campbell, is appealing to area residents who have taken pictures of the west side of Campbell during the recent flood, to bring in the pictures or proofs which will be used for engineering purposes. Black stated his department is interested in any type of pictures taken during the period of recent heavy rainfall in this area.

Persons willing to loan the pnctures, may contact Black at the City Hall in Campbell.

QUITO FAMILY IN FLOOD AREA

The Ray Spiker family of McCulloch Ave. spent an exciting Christmas in the flood area after Mary Spiker, her sister-in-law Thelma Medska and the two Spiker children, Edwina and Stuart, drove to Biggs. There Mrs. Spiker visited her brother-in-law Paul, and dropped off Thelma. She and the children drove on to her mother's house in Oroville. This was Tuesday, December 28.

Saturday, when Ray was able to leave, he called his wife that the storm had washed out all public transportation.

Bill Greenmore of Hacienda Gardens, who flies his own plane, was glad to fly over the flood area and take pictures.

The Spikers had lived in Yuba City before they moved to Quito, so Bill and Ray circled the plane over the part of the city where Ray's home had been and took movies of the flood damage. They were unable even to see the top of the house where Ray had lived, so it must have been hidden under the flood waters.

When Bill set his plane down at the Oroville Municipal Airport before dusk of Christmas Eve, Ray called his wife to come get him. She knew that the lower bridge had been flooded that morning, so she took the safe way round. When she got there, the two men told her they spent more time waiting for her than they did flying from San Jose to Oroville.

TOTS meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month at Campbell High School.

GUBSER LAUDS EFFICIENCY OF WIDESPREAD FLOOD RELIEF

That the disastrous Christmas floods in California, Nevada and Oregon demonstrated how the cumbersome machinery of government can suddenly go into high gear, was cited in a letter from Congressman Charles Gubser in Washington to the Campbell Press today. The letter in part stated:

"Entire blocks of the hard-hit business district of Santa Cruz were still under water and tons of mud when all levels of government met in Sacramento to map immediate moves for aid and relief. As congressman from the 10th district, I obtained an appointment with President Eisenhower's emissary, Federal Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson. The navy furnished a plane. City, county and state government met with federal officials. By the time the army flew us home, I had definite commitments for concrete aid.

Here, from flood-ravaged areas, sat the representatives of the people, congressmen, senators, supervisors, assemblymen, mayors, city managers, at the same table with the setate governor, high army officers, and the delegate of the President of the United States. They had the chance to present in detail their immediate problems, and to request the aid that government could and would render. Then and there, I obtained assurance that federal offices would be set up in Santa Cruz, that loans would be made available, that the federal government's full resources would be ready to help the people.

"The following day, three planes landed in Santa Cruz county. One brought the governor of California. One brought the Commanding General of the Sixth Army. The third, a large transport, landed the federal party, headed by Gov. Val Peterson. They came to see for themselves, to talk with the people, and to explain on the spot what help would be rendered.

"Cumbersome or not, Democracy is capable of swift and decisive action when people and communities are in peril and in want. I was intensely proud to see the federal civil defense administration slushing through the mud of downtown Santa Cruz, and to see the governor of California talk to clean-up crews on the shattered bridge in Soquel. If this is cumbersome, let it be. Our officials are public servants, and the people, not an all-powerful state, command their time, their efforts, and their every action."

William C. Henley, Campbell Union Grammar School district superintendent, gave a discussion of various problems facing the school district, and explained purpose of the forthcoming bond authorization election, at a meeting of officers of parent groups from all schools in the district and the Teachers Association, at Cherry Lane School cafetorium last night.

Henley stated that following the meeting, members of the various groups represented, had an opportunity to become acquainted and exchanged ideas and discussed problems in their groups.

It was a tough game for the Cougars to lose after leading all the way, but they proved to be an up-and-coming team. Al Diponzi scored 15 points for Camden, Cal Roacha 9, Mel Profit 6, Bob Little 2 and Skold none, as the starting lineup.

CITY ANNEXES TO BE STUDIED BY FARM GROUP

The problem involved in safeguarding valuable agricultural land from the encroachment by California's rapidly expanding city and suburban growth will be explored by legislators, planning authorities, county supervisors, industrialists and farm leaders during the Agricultural Zoning Conference, January 27 in San Francisco.

Governor Goodwin J. Knight will address the luncheon session of the all-day meeting, presided over by Frank M. Shay, San Jose, chairman of the State Chamber's statewide agricultural committee.

To fully explore the problems involving California cities, factories, highways and housing developments and farm land caught in the path of their expansion, the State Chamber has arranged the program to represent these interests as broadly as possible.

J. Earl Coke, vice president, of the Bank of America and former Assistant Secretary of Agriculture will open the meeting with an outline of the entire problem. Professor Ernest A. Englebert, Assistant Professor of Political Science, U. C. L. A. will detail what research on agricultural zoning has revealed. Karl Belser, Director, Santa Clara County Planning Commission, will present the views of a county planner, Donald Stevning, Riverside farmer, will explore the problem from the farmer viewpoint while Assemblyman Donald Coyle, Contra Costa County, will present the legislator's viewpoint.

The afternoon session will consist of a panel of experts who will answer written questions from the floor. The panel includes: Arthur Eddy, San Diego County Assessor; Robert E. Hanley, Berkeley, legislative representative for the California Farm Bureau Federation; State Senator Arthur Breed, Alameda County, chairman of the Senate Interim Committee on Subdivision and Planning; Richard Carpenter, Berkeley, manager of the League of California Cities, Karl Belser; James F. Lyttle, Boyes Hot Springs, president of the California County Supervisors Association; Bruce Craver, manager of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce; Donald A. Stevning; and Will Stevens, San Franicsco Examiner reporter and author of a series of articles which pointed up the problem of vanishing farm land in California.

EDITORIAL

THE CAMPBELL QUOTA

Postmen in Santa Clara County are delivering March of Dimes envelopes for the county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis seeking a $5 contribution per family as a cheap form of polio insurance.

Development of the Salk Vaccine through March of Dimes funds has helped in polio virus control, but the battle is not over yet for thousands who already have suffered its crippling effects. There are 238 such cases in Santa Clara County alone, according to Mr. Robert Simmons, chairman of the March of Dimes campaign.

Campbell will have a quota of $6,500 of the $150,000 overall goal from March of Dimes campaign, one of the largest single revenue sources. Last year some $34,222.47 was realized from this source.

We have only begun to conquer the polio virus, so the March of Dimes envelopes deserve the support of everyone of us.

DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

A frantic telephone call to the editor the day before Christmas from an unidentified woman was that storm waters were rising and coming into her bedroom, and will we please do something about it. At first it sounded a little amusing that we at this desk could stop the rise of water in a creek following a 4.55 inch downpour in 24 hours.

Suddenly we realized there was nothing funny about it.

This was a desperate cry for help, but from an unknown source. We traced the call and in a few minutes found men and trucks already on this scene getting families to safety. We saw a member of our city council over knee-deep in rushing water working with many others, and learned later that he had been on the job for more than twelve hours without rest.

We learned a lot from the flood seeming to get closer to our fellow man and to sense his reactions under strenuous circumstances. No one man or group could be singled out for duty beyond normal expectation, for everyone seemed to work as a team. We of Campbell did something about it, just like the frantic voice on the telephone had pleaded for.

THE LEVEE THAT HELD

Tragedy and despair rode the swirling disaster that dampened all of California's Christmas. Death reaped a harvest, and Destruction had a hideous holiday.

But even though man-made dikes and dams crumbled before the floods, one levee stood fast before the worst assaults that Nature could mount. It was built, not of stones and earth and bags of sand, but of human hearts. Heroism, sympathy, compassion tireless generosity shone like comforting beacons throughout terror-filled nights and anguished days.

It was demonstrated in no uncertain terms in Campbell as men in all walks of life worked side by side to give relief to those in need, and rally to raise not one truck-load of warm clothing and blankets as requested in twelve hours time, but came through with seven loads. Men and women endured hardships that the comforts of others might prevail.

SERIOUS LOOK AT EDUCATION

Education, like the weather, today is something that practically everyone is talking about. But behind the more immediate questions of federal aid, more school rooms, better teacher procurement, and such lies the deeper problem of what, and how, we should teach our children.

Dr. Mortimer Adler, an eminent educator and philosopher who is head of the Institute of Philosophical Research in San Francisco, recently placed before a group of California educators some basic and serious thoughts on the nature of our present problem. Dr. Adler and his colleagues are engrossed in the monumental task of making more readily available the enormous treasure of man's past thinking on fundamental issues. For that reason he is perhaps especially alert to disturbing inadequacies in our present efforts to impart knowledge that is easily at hand.

Dr. Adler fears that our ideal of an education for everyone has not been matched by our ability to give every child the type of learning he needs and can best absorb. American education, he feels, has in many of its phases deteriorated into a baby-sitting program. Our industrial ingenuity has produced more leisure for more people, but our educational program has not prepared these people to assume the social responsibilities that go with leisure.

Dr. Adler feels that education must find some way to give children the skills of learning, and enough idea of what learning is, so that they will pursue it the rest of their lives. Upon our ability to find this way lies the decision, he warns, as to "whether America is to become an Athens for the millions, or another Rome."

The question of whether Johnny can or can't read is important, but it is only a part of the problem of preparing our young people to find rewarding lives in a world they are equipped to run intelligently.

I LOVE A PARADE and the one at Pasadena on Monday was a beautiful one, although I strongly suspect that many of the flowers came from north of Santa Barbara to give color to these beautiful floats . . . what a display that is beyond comparison, with lavish spendings for awards . . . I got to within half block of the parade by joining dozens of others in a chartered bus from Downey, returning on it from the same point, thus avoiding the traffic jam and getting a front line view from a military jeep . . . don't know if the view was any better than it was the last time I saw the Tournament of Roses parade, some umpty-ump years ago when I was a boy living in Highland Park when I walked up the creek bed of the Arroyo Seco to an embankment I knew about leading to Orange Avenue in Pasadena from which point I always managed to sit on a curb to wait for the policemen on horses to come along to tell others to get on or back of the curb, the horses following along to make those who hesitated to move on . . .I was amused at the lunches everyone brought along as if they would not have another opportunity to eat for many hours . . . one group near where I stood had a pair of canvas cots stretched end to end, which their children took turns reclining on, while the adults for hours munched on sandwiches, bananas, apples and cracker-jacks, telling all who approached not to disturb the beds, until a big policeman came along, stepped on the cot and started a rip which became greater when others sat on it, and so far as I could learn most of those standing nearby were about on the verge of letting out a cheer, as the family said something about whether it was worth while taking it back to their "cad", yet at the same time closing in to prevent a mother with a tiny infant from passing through to an ambulance, her child obviously in need of fresh air and some doctor's attention.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN and dogs . . . this was salutation at the Campbell High School assembly on Tuesday by Frederic Schobairn, noted pianist, who spotted a dog cornered and howling in the balcony which finally was evicted by Robert Culp, dean of boys so that the program could continue . . . Schobairn played numbers by Tchaikowsky, Debussy, Chopin and Shostakovich and told a few of the George Gobel type jokes to hold the interest of his audience, but the bow-wow in the gallery got the biggest laugh . . . six High School teachers, Felix Knauth, Ken Wallace, Robert Olson, Dennis Friend, Betty Giltianian and Gladys Whitaker will be eating a steak dinner at the Chuck Wagon in San Jose, Wednesday evening, January 25, account they sponsored through the junior class, sale of more than $5000 in subscriptions for a nationally known publishing firm.

C.P.U. Funds For Grade Crossing At Mt. View

The California Public Utilities Commission has allocated to the County of Santa Clara $5155 to assist in paying the county's share of the cost of installing automatic gate arms with flashing light signals at the Easy Street crossing of the Southern Pacific tracks south of Mountain View.

Easy Street is a crossing over main line double tracks of the Southern Pacific which at present is protected by a crossing sign and one wigwag signal.

The allocation to the County of Santa Clara was one-half of its 50-50 share of the total cost of $20,620 for installing the automatic gates. Southern Pacific is paying half the cost.

Easy Street is one of the crossings which Commission engineers recommended be protected following a 1951 survey. Some 30 crossings on the Peninsula which have protective devices other than gates, will be the subject of a conference called by the Commission in San Mateo on January 19. The Commission since 1951 has recommended that all crossings of main line double tracks be protected with gates.

JR. C OF C SPEAKER

Tom Harmon, one time football great, now a prominent sportscaster will be the main speaker Tuesday night, January 17 when the San Jose Junior Chamber of Commerce has its outstanding-young-man-of-the year banquet in Hotel St. Claire at San Jose.

PG&E Forecast For 1956 Sees High Prosperity

Northern and Central California will experience a high level of business activity in 1956 under the stimulus of continued heavy gains in population combined with full employment, Pacific Gas and Electric Company forecast today in an annual economic review focused on its 46-county service territory.

"Most business indicators established new records in Northern California last year," the published forecast points out under the title "1956—What's Ahead." "The momentum is expected to carry over into 1956, with a leveling-off at a new high plateau of business volume. Continuation of business activity at the 1955 average levels would mean another year of prosperity in 1956.

"Population expansion, construction at record peaks, employment at high levels, disposable personal income continuing to rise, a tremendous public works backlog—all are favorable influences which will work to support a vigorous economy in Northern and Central California.

"The markets of Northern and Central California will benefit by the addition of about 187,000 new residents during 1956, making a total population of 6,164,000 in the 46 counties by year's end. The projected 1956 rate of growth is 3.1%, an increase from the 2.3% average rate of population expansion in the three years 1953 through 1955."

Campbell Gets $4025 As Share Motor Licenses

Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, today distributed $8,963,311.14 in motor vehicle license fee revenue for the period June 1 through November 30 among the counties and cities of California.

Of the $4,481,655.57 distributed to cities, Campbell received $4,025.50, which is based on $0.52 per capita.

A like amount went to the counties of California, with Santa Clara County receiving $123,002.00, based on $0.42 per capita.

The net revenue from motor vehicle license fees for the period June 1 through November 30, 1955 totaled $10,594,351.64. After deductions of $330,812.50 for semi-annual interest on highway bonds and $1,300,000 which represents costs of the Department of Motor Vehicles in collecting the tax, $8,963,311.14 remained for apportionment.

An outgrowth of the personal property tax originally levied on motor vehicles by the counties and cities and subsequently levied by the State to achieve uniformity, motor vehicle license fees are levied at the rate of $2.00 per hundred dollars of market value of each vehicle.

The current apportionment is $3,158,875 more than the December 1954 apportionment.

FLOOD DAMAGED PLANTS TO RECEIVE GRANTS

If deemed of merit, industrial plants damaged by flood will get materials and equipment to restore operations through action today of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

FHA HELP FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

M. Joseph Cassidy, Special Representative of FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason is in San Francisco to put into effect both long-range and emergency FHA assistance for families whose homes were destroyed or damaged by the recent floods.

Cassidy, and Housing Administrator M. Justin Herman, surveyed damage in the Santa Cruz area. Extraordinay measures to speed the financing of repairs, new construction, and purchase of existing dwellings are being authorized throughout the devastated districts of California, Oregon, and Nevada.

Credit restrictions of the Federal Housing Administration have been relaxed in order to assist those, who have lost their homes in what have been designated as "Disaster Areas". It was announced that immediate efforts are being concentrated on emergency measures. FHA's great contribution will be its ability to make available sound long-range private financing for permanent homes to replace those which have been lost and to rehabilitate those which have been damaged.

Qualified home buyers in "Disaster Areas" who desire to purchase new homes may make a 5% down payment on the first $9,000 of appraised value, and 25% of the amount in excess of $9,000.

Qualified persons who desire to purchase existing homes will be required to make a down payment of only 10% of the first $9,000 of appraised value, plus 25% of the amount in excess of $9,000. In the case of both new homes and existing structures, the maximum amount of mortgage FHA is permitted by law to insure on a single-family home is $20,000. A 30-year mortgage term is available in both cases.

Math Teaching Is Topic Here

SAFE-DRIVING CLUB IS FORMED FOR TEEN-AGERS

"Make Every Day a Safe Driving Day" is the slogan chosen for the recently organized club of teen-age boys to promote safe driving habits among young people in this area, under the leadership of Officer Gordon A. Rooney of the Campbell Police Department.

The main purpose of the group, besides promoting safe driving habits for young people, is to provide an outlet for boys who are interested in working with cars, such as "customizing" and improving them in other ways. They presently meet in homes of various members, but their long-range plans are to eventually have space and facilities for safety inspection of cars and a place for the boys to work on their cars under approved guidance and leadership. In the future, they hope to have a "drag strip" for the boys to test their cars and racing in an approved and safe manner.

Members must be 17 years of age and possess a drivers license for six months prior to admission in the club, besides a record of safe driving.

Bud Feasel has been elected president; Arnold Blackstone, vice president; Ed Faulkner, treasurer; Tom Jouler, secretary, and Jerry Madsen, sergeant-at-arms. Charter members of the club, besides officers are: Tom Clark, Jim Welker, Tony LoBue and Gary Lenz. Adult club advisers are: Fred Madsen, H. D. Blackstone, J. A. Feasel and E. C. Welker.

Boys interested in joining the club may contact any of the members or Officer Rooney of the Campbell Police Department.

SPECIAL SCHOOL ON GINGER LANE

Della Maggiore New Supervisor Board Chairman

Sam Della Maggiore was named chairman of the Board of Supervisors at the meeting Monday in a surprise move. He is wrestling and baseball coach for San Jose high school. He was nominated by Supervisor Ed Levin, erstwhile bitter enemy on the board with Supervisor Joe McKinnon seconding.

Della Maggiore, who succeeds fifth district supervisor Walter S. Gaspar of Palo Alto, has in recent months carried on a spirited campaign to get rid of county executive Frank H. Thill.

Levin disclaimed a deal had been made. He attempted immediately to lay at rest any speculation that Della Maggiore had agreed to stop harassing Thill in return for the coveted chairmanship.

"It was Sam's turn or mine," Levin insisted. "There was no deal of any kind."

The election of Della Maggiore apparently came as a surprise to Gaspar. As late as yesterday he indicated to newsmen that he was willing to serve a second term as chairman if the board wanted him.

Della Maggiore, a resident of Lucretia avenue in rural San Jose, represents the second Supervisorial district. He was elected supervisor in 1952 and is now beginning the fourth year of his first term on the board. Along with Gaspar and Levin, he is up for re-election this year.

Thank you for your patience

We're grateful that most of our customers had uninterrupted service right through the recent heavy storms and disastrous floods. But you may live in one of the areas where service was out for a time. If so, we thank you for being patient until our crews could restore your service.

When the gales struck and the floods came, they hit us along with everyone else.

Some of our facilities were flooded and temporarily taken out of operation, but the service interruptions experienced by our customers came from damaged electric lines. Literally hundreds of lines were ripped down by heavy winds and raging water.

Our employees worked valiantly around the clock, however, and held interruptions to relatively short periods in most cases. We are proud of their selfless devotion to public service.

So once more, thank you for your cooperation, your understanding, your patience. And—like you—we sincerely hope the floods will never come again!

JOHN CRUMMEY TO SHOW MOVIE OF AFRICAN TRIP

John D. Crummey, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Food Machinery Corporation, next Sunday will present, under sponsorship of the Sunday Evening Community Forum, a filmed travelog of his recent safari through Africa.

Having traveled around the world three times, and made four trips to Africa, Mr. Crummey has shot thousands of feet of movie film, with African big game his specialty. The scope of his camera hunting of big game places him on a professional basis ranking with the late Martin Johnsons. His 1949 expedition in a helicopter enabled him to obtain shots that are completely exclusive and his flight across the huge game preserves of Central Africa—was an initial experiment that African government authorities have not allowed repeated because the animals were so badly frightened.

A few clips from the helicopter films will appear in the movie to be presented at the First Methodist Church, 5th and Santa Clara Streets, this Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., with the greater part of the movie composed of shots taken on the April, 1955 safari which Mrs. Crummey shared with the industrial executive turned movie photographer. Thrilling shots of battles to the death among animals, and a gathering of over one and one-half million animals at the only remaining water hole during a drouth are among those to be shown.

The public is invited and admission is free. The Sunday Evening Community Forum is a nonsectarian organization dedicated to advancing the culture of the Santa Clara Valley, and eight other speakers will be presented on successive Sundays. Lecturers will include Harrison Salisbury, Guri Lie and Dorothy Thompson.

Old Settler Feted On 80th Birthday

J. B. Collins, who has lived on his McCoy Ave. ranch for forty-five years, celebrated his eightieth birthday December 29. Both he and his wife, Hulda Collins, have lived in the Campbell area since they were children. A surprise birthday cake was the feature of the day. His two nieces, Frances Porter-Stewart of Berkeley and Lois Hayes of Burlingame, together with their husbands, came down to join festivities as also did three of his children, with their families, Jesse B. Collins; the Petersens, Jeanette and Charles; and Edgar, Isabelle, and ten-year-old Louise Pechin, all of Campbell, joined in the festivities.

The fourth Collins child, Dorothy, who will be remembered by her classmates of CUHS 1922 as a budding poet, was unable to attend. Her home is in Santa Monica, and her youngest child Diane, who attended summer-school in Mexico, had planned to spend the Christmas holidays there. Dorothy and Gerome de Rollin decided they should see for themselves what attraction Guadlajara had for their daughter, so they headed South rather than North.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McCommas of Fort Worth, Texas. He attended a college in Fort Worth and San Jose State College. He is presently employed as a draftsman in Millbrae.

Korean Youngster 'Adopted' By Local Dentist

Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hughes of 705 Shady Dale Avenue, Campbell, have "adopted" Choi Yung Chul, an eight year old Korean boy, through Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, Inc.

The boy's father died shortly after serving in the front lines during the war. His health was shattered, but he managed to work for a short time and died soon after returning home, probably of tuberculosis. His mother, who also has an infant daughter to care for, derives only a meager income from doing any odd jobs she manages to get. The family lives in a small rented room. Chou Yung Chul is attending school and doing well. He aspires to become a teacher.

Foster Parents' Plan has cared for more than 75,000 war children. It is now operating in Belgium, England, France, Western Germany, Greece, Holland, Italy and Korea, and is helping unfortunate and impoverished children of nineteen different nationalities, without regard to race or creed.

The Plan has recently established headquarters in Korea to bring aid and rehabilitation to the thousands of needy children.

Foster Parents' Plan for War Children does not do mass relief; each child is treated as an individual. Adoption is financial, not legal. The Foster Parent merely promises to contribute $15 monthly towards the child's support, for at least a year. In return, the Foster Parent receives a brief history of the child and a photograph, and correspondence through the Plan office is encouraged, since the children need the feeling of being loved and belonging to someone, someplace.

Brilliant New Roses Available

Undisputed queen of the flower kingdom is the Rose. Its form, fragrance and many colors make it the flower preferred over all others by most gardeners and non-gardeners alike.

One of the reasons the Rose is so beloved is the constant development of new varieties by nurserymen each year. The year of 1956 will be no exception to the rule of new variety introductions. Top on the list of new Roses is, of course, the All America selection given to one Rose only this year—Circus. Circus is a floribunda of many changing colors from red, to yellow, orange, apricot, gold and pink and often back to red.

Another new Rose of 1956 is Love Song which is pink with a yellow base. Also pink and new is the everblooming climber Mona Lisa. Its fragrant flowers are large and salmon-pink in color. The shrub itself is a small pillar type climber.

Of course All America selections are prize flowers to plant no matter what year they are and the 1955 selections are especially outstanding because in them a new Rose class was introduced—the Grandiflora. And the award-winning grandiflora was Queen Elizabeth, a light silvery pink, combining the important characteristics of the hybrid tea and the floribunda Roses. Roundelay, another grandiflora, was also introduced last year. It blooms in red. One of the new grandifloras of the year is Montezuma which is a striking scarlet-orange.

Other 1955 A. A. R. S. Roses are Tiffany and Jiminy Cricket. Tiffany, a hybrid tea, is a deep pink and yellow; Jiminy Cricket, a floribunda, is a tangerine-red opening to soft orange. Another new floribunda of last year is Fire Engine, a brilliant red as its name implies.

This year's floribundas include Fanfare and Wildfire. Fanfare is a coral orange predominantly but its shadings change as it continues its blooming from yellow through orange into pink. Wildfire is a brilliant red, and semi-single.

The California Association of Nurserymen suggests that Roses be planted within the next two months while the plants are still dormant. Selections for planting, including all the newest as well as the established Rose varieties, can be made at local nurseries. Nurserymen will be glad to suggest the best varieties for the locale and explain the proper planting methods.

My Favorite Prayer

Father and Creator, teach us Thy will. Free us from ignorance; guard us from fear. Give us the insight to ever prize liberty—Thy gift. Strengthen us that we may never barter it for false promises. Guide us that we may be faithful in our daily duties. Grant that we learn the lesson of love taught by Him in Whose Name we pray.

SALVATION ARMY FUND FOR FLOOD RELIEF IS LOW

An emergency appeal for flood relief funds was made today by the Salvation Army Western Territorial Commander, Lt. Commissioner Holland French.

"Funds are desperately needed by the Salvation Army to meet present emergencies created by the Western States flood and for the program of relief and rehabilitation that lies ahead," said Commissioner French.

"Checks should be made out to Salvation Army Flood Relief, and donations may be turned in to any Salvation Army office or sent to Territorial Headquarters at 101 Valencia St., San Francisco 3."

The Salvation Army is cooperating with government agencies and other private relief organizations to provide aid, particularly in cases of distress and emergency not eligible for other agency help. Although clothing has now been received in sufficient quantity for Flood Relief distribution, there is a continuing need for salvage material to carry on the regular Salvation Army Men's Rehabilitation program.

Low Tax Base Prosperity Key Here In 1956

Prospects for 1956 for the 456,800 people of Santa Clara county are good, if population and local property tax base are any indicator, California Taxpayers' association said today.

First, there is the good-sized population growth of the county during 1955—an increase of some 49,400 people being indicated between January 1, 1955, and January 1, 1956.

Second, there is the increase in wealth, as measured by total value of taxable property within the county, which went from $552,184,985 for 1954-55 to $623,921,820 for 1955-56.

Third, there is the average wealth of the county, measured by the property tax base tied in with population. This is shown in the assessed value of taxable property per capita, which is $1,531 for 1955-56, compared with $1,465 for 1954-55.

Looking at the over-all California situation, the association said:

"California, with an estimated 13,456,000 population at January 1, 1956, shows an increase of 660,000 people during 1955.

"Total value of taxable property throughout California tops $20 billion for 1955-56, reaching $20-033,032,396 for the year, compared with $18,228,976,091 for 1954-55.

"Per capita-wise, taxable value of property throughout the state averages $1,564 per person for this year, compared with $1,476 for 1954-55.

"The big increase in population both aggravates and alleviates the tax situation," the Taxpayers' association pointed out.

"On the aggravation side, there is need for more schools, more highways, more government generally to serve the increasing numbers of people.

"On the alleviation side, there are more people, more homes, more industries, more purchases for the growing population—all resulting in more government income from the same tax base.

"Looking ahead, there will not only be more population growth and more demands for government services, but there will also be the bigger tax cost which must inevitably follow.

"A healthy future for California will result if every governmental unit in the state—from the smallest school district to the state itself—spends wisely so that a maximum return is produced from today's tax payments," the association said.

LAW IN ACTION

RECORDS FOR PROTECTION

Keep good records for your legal protection. In business they'll help you take care of your affairs and much may depend upon them at law. Say around tax-paying time.

Someday you may sell your home at a profit. Keep track now of your improvement costs. Did you weather-strip, plant shrubs, build shelves, flagstone the patio, or roof the house? Then you may figure these costs to keep your capital gains down for income tax purposes.

Your records need not be fancy: But at least keep one envelope for the invoices or cancelled checks on your house and lot, another for your doctor, drugs and dental receipts, etc. Keep copies of all important letters, contracts, etc. They may save you and the tax man a lot of trouble in years to come.

Some records are vital. The state has set up places, usually at the courthouse, to keep such records as marriages, births, deaths, property transactions, military discharge papers, court actions, corporation papers and the like. Modern business could not go on without such records to protect against legal loss.

Wilson bought a lot from Old Mr. Smith in 1950, but put off recording the deed. Since he had the deed, he thought, couldn't he record it any time?

Last year he got a good offer and decided to sell. But he'd misplaced his deed. He tried to look up Old Man Smith to get another, but Smith had died. Worse luck, in his dotage, the old man had borrowed on the place and a bank had recorded a mortgage against it. This could not have happened had Wilson recorded his deed. How can Wilson get another deed? Does he have to settle with the bank? A long sad tale it is, which may call for all sorts of actions in court and out. The point is, had Wilson recorded his deed at the courthouse, he'd be in the clear now.

Make and keep a copy of all your important papers. You don't need to record them all, but get a bank safety deposit box or space in a storage place and hold on to them.

Note: The State Bar of California offers this column for you to know more about our laws.

Edgar Bergen And Charlie McCarthy Flying Here Today

Edgar Bergen, the country's foremost ventriloquist, and his famous friends Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd are scheduled to provide the entertainment for the annual O'Connor Hospital Medical Staff dinner, tonight, according to Sister Helen, O'Connor Administrator.

Bergen is taking time out from rehearsal for his new television series, to make the courtesy appearance here in recognition of a long-standing friendship with the O'Connor Administrator. They became acquainted when he was a patient at St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles, where Sister Helen at the time was Assistant Administrator and Director of Nursing.

Bergen has always had an intense interest in th mediacl professions stemming from his early ambitions to be a doctor. Shortly after he was hospitalized at St. Vincent's he established a loan fund there for student nurses. As an outgrowth of this idea he later established the Bergen Foundation which provides loan funds for deserving student nurses throughout the country.

He will fly to San Jose, Thursday in his own plane.

First Payment To Prune Growers On 1955 Crop Ready

Grower-Members of the California Prune and Apricot Growers Association will receive a distribution of $1,973,965 early in January, Director Jos. V. Gomes of the Campbell-Los Gatos Prune and Apricot Association announced today. This will include First Progress Payments on 1955 Crop Prunes and Dried Peaches

He said that General Manager T. O. Kluge has reported that the market for 1955 Crop Dried Fruits has been satisfactory to date, but that the period of heavy consumption is still ahead. Heaviest demand for Dried Fruits is usually during the winter months. Kluge added that there is nothing in the present market outlook to cause uneasiness as far as Dried Fruits are concerned.

Aldercroft To Get New Road

That the Aldercroft Heights Road out from Los Gatos would be re-located because of constantly recurring slides was recommended by County Engineer Leonard Bushnell on Tuesday to the County Board of Supervisors. Bushnell said the road could be moved down to the abandoned railroad grade which runs through the Los Gatos Canyon. A new route to Aldercroft will be surveyed in about three months, he said.

The mountain community was cut off for several days by slides on county and private roads during the pre-Christmas floods.

Bushnell's comments followed reading of a letter to the board from the Aldercroft Heights Improvement Association requesting special aid to repair the county road when emergency funds are available.

It was pointed out that to make the roads safe again will require repairs on a major scale. The letter said the road was now in a "perilous condition."

Signed by F. S. Small, president of the group, the communication also thanked Bushnell's department for cooperation in opening roads during the storm.

Principal James Sorensen of Lexinton School announced today that school buses will stop at Alma Bridge from now on.
